New Program: Bring a print of one of your photos you particularly like or don't like (no projections) to discuss briefly, or a photo gadget, backpack, etc. you would like to talk about. Describe a processing tip, an editing program, a book, magazine or website you find helpful. This will be a meeting to encourage discussion and Q&A among members. Let's share our expertise.

Addition to the November meeting, a “White Elephant Sale”. If you have equipment, camera bags, etc. you would like to sell, there will be a sales table. Limit of two items. Attach a price though you may barter with potential purchasers.

Dec 10 Holiday Party

From Theresa Rasmussen

My photo "Fire and Ice" won the Rivers and Waterways Category in the Scenic Virginia photo contest this year. I had heard the ice was pretty amazing on the Potomac this past winter, so I drove up to Leesylvania the next morning to see it. Not only was the ice pretty incredible, but I was rewarded by a beautiful sunrise as well. I did discover that snow boots aren't waterproof, as I waded into the Potomac to get close to the ice for my photo. It was worth every freezing cold toe, that's for sure!

2020 ANNUAL JOSEPH MILLER ABSTRACT EXHIBIT

This year is the 10th anniversary edition of the Joseph Miller Abstract Photography Exhibit. Over the past 10 years, the exhibit has earned a reputation for displaying a variety of work from talented photographers. Many of our members have entered and been accepted into this show in past years.

Starting December 29, 2018, the center begins accepting entries. Notifications of acceptance will be sent in March. Exhibit opens on May 2, 2020.

Further info at <https://nvacc.org> or email Joseph Miller at furnfoto@aol.com.
