2022 Annual Fredericksburg Photography Show

Our first year back after a two-year COVID break was a great success. We want to thank all that came out to help put on the show (David, Mary Jane, Sheryl, Charlie, Mike S., Mike F., Eleanor, Esther, Vickie, Andy, Judy, Richard, Taylor, Bill, Patricia, Rosanne, Norma, Chris, and everybody else who helped make the Show a success).

We had 320 entries (only 50 short of the last “live” show), with 52 photographers participating. Our attendance numbers were good also (Th-32, Fri-31, Sat-89, Sun-74). Many were very happy to see the Show back, and many also left compliments and requests to be put on our “Save the Date” email for the 2023 Show.

Club members did well in the awards department (11-1st Place, 6-2nd Place, 8-3rd Place, 14-Honorable Mentions, and 11-Merit Awards, with Best in Show going to Renee Martin).

We are starting now preparing for the 2023 Show, so keep an eye out for emails over the coming months of any changes or requests for suggestions and participation. This is the Club's one Community event every year and we continue to strive to make the Show the best possible in the area.

The Arts Center of Montross hosts WOMEN' EYES exhibit until the end of July.

This photography exhibit is by four Fredericksburg Photography Club members – Lee Cochran, Sue Henderson, Penny Parrish and Norma Woodward.

The Arts Center at Montross is a new gallery which has a large and varied selection of artworks. The Women's Eyes group was honored to be a part of the grand opening.

Make a trip to Montross to support the fledgling gallery and your fellow club members.

The ideology or “style” you have in photography should be less about the camera you shoot with, the subject matter you photograph, or whether your shots are in black and white.

Your photography should be how you see the world, what is important to you, and what you are trying to say about society through your images.
