From Carol Bochert

“Our annual photo show at Dorothy Hart Community Center is coming up soon. We are in need of volunteers to work at the show in 2 hour shifts from Monday June 3 through the end of the show on June 9. You can sign up for the 2 hour session(s) of your choice online at <https://volunteersignup.org/HQFA>

The link to online signup is also available through the club web site at <https://www.fbgphotoclub.com/annual-show>. I will also have a hard copy of the sign up list at the meeting on the 14th.

As for the club board (for new members, we have a display at the show of members' work; these are not judged), I will accept 4 photos from members. They must be matted as in the show, but the mat may be colored. No framed pieces. You may submit canvas print, metal, etc.) They must be delivered to the Dorothy Hart center on the first check-in day, or you may bring them to the May Photo Club meeting and I will take them to Dorothy Hart for the show.”

From Norma Woodward

There are times a photographer has an completely unexpected, but important, photo opportunity. This happened to me recently in Paris – the fire at Notre Dame. These are a few of my photos.
