

FREDERICKSBURG PHOTOGRAPHY CLUB ANNUAL SHOW

The Fredericksburg Photography Club has been serving area photographers for the past 32 years with monthly critique sessions, presentations, and an annual photography show. Established in 1986, the club has nearly 80 members and is growing every month. With their constructive critique, members find a supportive environment that builds confidence while instructing in areas of lighting, technique, and presentation.

Norma Woodward, the club's president, attributes the growth they've seen in recent years to the ease of applying for membership Online. Mike Fleckenstein, the group's webmaster, echoes that endorsement of modernizing their approach to membership. The digital age has been friendly to the club.

The annual show has become the event for which the club is best known. Once run by Fredericksburg Parks and Rec, the Fredericksburg Photography Club took the reins two years ago. With the generous contributions of space and presentation boards from Parks and Rec, the club hopes to continue expanding the possibilities of the show. With nearly 500 entries from 75 regional photographers this year, they are well on their way.

The Fredericksburg Photography Club meets on the second Tuesday of each month at 7 p.m. at the Dorothy Hart Community Center in downtown Fredericksburg. Visit them online for more information about the club and membership. www.fbgphotoclub.com
